The DMV Math Cartoon Prize 2022

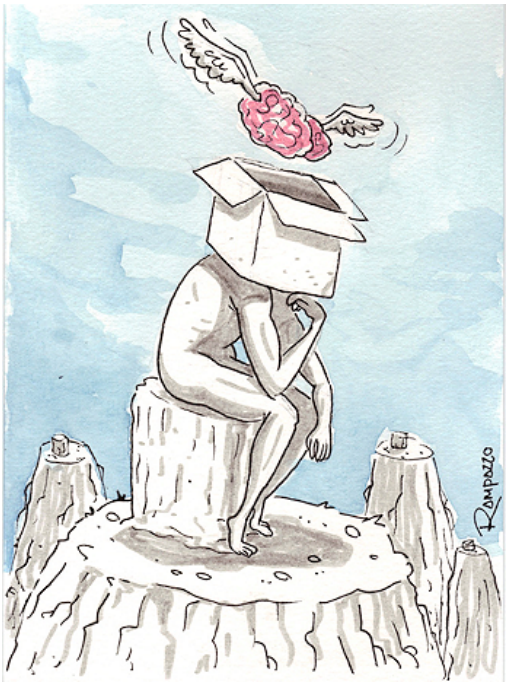
Competition on the Topic: Mathemathics in Cartoons

March 14, 2022: On the occasion of the „International Day of Mathematics 2022“, the German Mathematical Society / DMV (Deutsche Mathematiker-Vereinigung) publishes the call for its cartoon prizes 2022 in mathematics.

The DMV with its partners toonpool.com and imaginary.org are looking for the funniest and most sophisticated cartoons on the subject of mathematics.



„Out of the Box“ by Marcelo Rampazzo, Brazil 2015

All artists are invited to upload their math cartoons on www.toonpool.com until August 31, 2022. Up to 100 of the best entries will be collected for a virtual exhibition to be displayed globally and in local presentations throughout the year 2022.

All submitted cartoons will be evaluated by a jury (representatives of mathematics, media and arts) to honor three outstanding artworks with the "DMV Math Cartoon Prize 2022". The award ceremony will take place in September 2022 during the DMV annual meeting in Berlin.
